

Kindergarten News

Literacy: We talked about Diversity this week. We learned how we are all different, but we can still be friends and like each other. We talked about things that make us happy, sad, mad and scared. We observed what each of these faces look like so we can recognize these emotions on each other.

Next week we will start a Color unit. We will learn how to read and write our colors. The book Go Away Big Green Monster will be a fun way to practice our color words. We will also be doing some science experiments to mix our colors.

Treasure Book: Our treasure book this week was Whoever You Are by Mem Fox. It is a book about how people look and talk different from all over the world, but how we are all the same on the inside. Our treasure is a small mirror so we can see how special we are! Our treasure book next week will be Mouse Paint.

Math: We continue with our calendar folders. We are getting good at counting our tally marks, adding on and patterns. We will focus on counting, measuring and patterns over the next two weeks.

Dates to Remember:

September 15: Math Night *It would be a great idea to come if you have not been introduced to Everyday Math.

September 19: Mallardfest

September 22: Parent zoo-phonics night (more info. Later)

October 1: Picture retake Day

Misc.

*Please check your child's book bag for the treasure boxes. They need to be at home and we are noticing some of them still in their bookbags.

* Don't forget to return Library books on Wednesday

* Please sign and return M.O.O.S.E. books each day.

*Return the Friday folder on Monday with any signed paperwork, lunch money or notes.

*We are collecting September book reports now.

Have a great weekend.
